

Please do not allow any further consolidation of ownwerships of radio and television stations. Independent ownwerships and divergent opinions are essential to the health of our Democracy. You should instead be breaking up existing corporate multiple ownwerships.

Thank You, David Trask